

What pleasure is provided by Escorts in Istanbul?

I never had any hesitation in experimenting with any sexual positions and my clients would always find me depending on their demands. I always fulfilled all their needs whether it was nudity or wearing the dress according to their liking. I was crowned as the queen of the sex world and anyone who spends a single night with me never forgets my escort services for their entire lifetime and never looks for or finds any other escort service, rather their preference would remain only.

I also used to be available in 5-star hotels of Istanbul anytime but only with those clients who have a big cock. It was my promise that my client would be fully satisfied with my Escort Girls in Istanbul. I would also travel with some of my clients in various cities of the country. I would assure my clients about my appreciation of my hot, sexy and milky services. I was an experienced person in this field.

During that period, I came across many clients, but there was a day when a client referred me in media as I was looking for the profession of fashion modelling. The reference was very strong so soon I began to take up lots of assignments such as events Ad shoot Modelling Seminars, Award ceremonies, events in schools/colleges, Fashion shows, Photo shoots Corporate Meetings with high-class clients, and made a huge reputation in the city of Istanbul. Ultimately, my dream came true and I became a fashion model, but still, I never left my studies and previous profession. As I was almost everywhere in the media, I began to avoid my clients and contacted an escort agency for the services of it.

After availing services of this agency, I came to know about the waste of my time working as an independent escort since, with an agency, one can earn much and at the same time it stays safe. It is common knowledge that people living in metro cities are always busy in their routine life and according to the current situation, it is very difficult for couples to find time for themselves. They are not able to indulge in pleasure sex but have sex in their routine which makes them bored. This is the reason why couples are looking for another partner to fulfil their requirements and Istanbul Female Escorts does a great job in this regard.

Do Escorts Like to Have Sex?

At times, I find myself frustrated by seeing such kind of repetitive queries again and again. For instance, posing such a question implies that there exists some kind of generalization for human emotions and feelings like a non-living commodity. I would be wrong to talk about all the Turkish Call Girl considering that humans have different emotional ranges that make them think about life and people in a particular manner. Even if an escort enjoys having sex, this does not mean that she will enjoy sexual intercourse with anyone at all. Of course, it is not. Like I have mentioned in one of my previous blogs: chemistry is not a learned phenomenon in any form.

Is it a Bad Thing to Be with an Escort as a Girlfriend?

What's so bad about it? It is only because of the unfair and inhuman perspective of modern society towards prostitutes. An Istanbul Escort Girl is not any different from anyone else. Of course, her way of life may be different, but this doesn't mean that she doesn't deserve respect and love like anyone else. Unfortunately, this opinion persists in the minds of people who consider certain groups of people undeserving of basic human respect.

Are Escorts Attracted to Handsome Men?

This query made me laugh out loud; No! I'd say the majority of escorts would find the idea amusing if a man thought his good looks would earn him a bargain. Most Escort Women Istanbul like myself do not consider appearance important at all. An experienced courtesan knows perfectly well that the good looks of someone are irrelevant when it comes to our occupation. Even though it is an attractive client, he will not necessarily be a great lover, an amazing man or most importantly, a generous one. Some qualities which I admire in clients include: generosity, respectfulness, cleanliness, intelligence and selfless nature in sex no demands.

This brought back to mind one of my clients who wanted to book with me. This fellow called me and made numerous attempts on how handsome he was and 'well-endowed' he was in size. I just shook my head and thought to myself You must be the worst in bed since you are trying so hard to convince me of how amazing you must be. I hung up the phone and did not see him. Ladies take note, any fellow who brags about himself too much and his 'amazingness' should definitely be avoided. Any fellow with an ego like that usually hides huge insecurities and inadequacies behind it

Fortunately, enough, I know after meeting with all those men that: If it sounds too good to be true, then it most likely is!
