The best escort services. As an escort, it's impossible to take a week off each month because of menstruation. Considering that appointments with girls in Karachi also start a week before menstruation, this would mean being absent for two weeks a month due to mood swings, emotional instability, cramps, bleeding, and other discomforts.

However, since this is impractical and work must continue regardless, most escorts honor their appointments even during their periods. This isn't necessarily a drawback, especially considering the numerous benefits of having sex during menstruation: it reduces menstrual flow, relieves orgasm-related cramps (which stimulate uterine contractions and facilitate the shedding of the uterine lining), improves mood, and prevents excessive vaginal discharge. During menstruation, vaginal discharge increases because the cells of the uterine lining act as an excellent natural lubricant.
